

Midsummer's day is just two months away!

... and Sunday 21 June is the date for the 2009 edition of the Beacon Cotswold Audax.

Beacon RCC's Cotswold Audax is a great day's riding for cyclists of all ambition levels. Hundreds of riders enjoy the warm welcome and camaraderie of this well-established annual promotion, featuring:

*A great HQ near the M42, with ample parking, changing facilities, showers and catering
Choice of three distances: 108, 150 and 202 km
(67.5, 94 and 126 miles)
Country lanes almost all the way
Great scenery, with leafy byways and limestone villages
Controls at cycle-friendly cafés and pubs
Free refreshments at the start and finish
Souvenir water bottle and pen for every finisher
Comprehensive on-line support and information*

All for just £6!

(Depending on your status and how you enter, you may also need to pay insurance and an on-line entry charge.)

Enter on line or download a postal entry form.

The rides are often over-subscribed, and entry is on a first-come-first-served basis